I can: Use two dated records to spot change and continuity.

Point, speak, draw or write. Keep your first answer visible.

Our source

CONSTRUCTED TEACHING RECORDS: fictional Oak Street; dates are for comparing before and after.

Record A - 1980: Oak Street has a library, a bus stop and a small shop.

Record B - 2026: the shop has become a cafe; the library and bus stop remain.

Both records show the same fictional street.

These are written teaching records, not photographs.

First decision

Which statement is supported by both records?

A. The library stayed. / B. The street had no buses. / C. Everyone liked the cafe.

My choice and reason:

Your evidence

1. Put the two dates in time order.

2. Find one change and one thing that stayed.

3. Can the records tell us whether everyone liked the change? Explain or point.
