

BUILD HUMANITIES / PUPIL SHEET 1

Two real photographs

Autumn 1 · Week 4 · Then and now

Name: _____ Date: _____

Tees Transporter Bridge, photographed from different viewpoints. Both images are in the past.
Credits and licence are in the Teacher Guide.

A | Oliver Dixon | 21 November 2008

Earlier photo: _____ because _____.

B | Rod Grealish | 4 September 2017

A feature I can see in both:

Two model records

Autumn 1 · Week 4 · Then and now

These are fictional teaching records of the same made-up place. They are not archive evidence about Teesside.

Record	Date	Description
C	1990	A library and an empty grass area beside it.
D	2026	The same library and a play area beside it.

One thing that stayed:

One thing that changed:

A possible reason (a guess, not a proven fact):

What can the evidence support?

Autumn 1 · Week 4 · Then and now

Why are the dates more useful than photo colour?

Why might two photographs look different even if the place has not changed?

My best evidence sentence:

My listener heard / my improvement:
